Maricopa County Board of Supervisors Recognize Valley Groups for Adopt-A-Highway Volunteer Service

The Maricopa County Board of Supervisors recognized groups from throughout the county that have volunteered via the Maricopa County Department of Transportation (MCDOT) Adopt-A-Highway program. The groups agree to clean litter from their designated stretches of road at least four times a year. The presentation of plaques took place at the Board of Supervisors Auditorium in downtown Phoenix Wednesday morning, May 4, 2005.

Stephanie Brown, Adopt-A-Highway Coordinator, explained this is the third annual presentation of plaques to recognize groups that go the "extra mile." Brown introduced each award recipient and the Supervisor from the respective district of each honored group presented each plaque.

Special Awards were presented to the Sun City PRIDES and to the San Tan Mountains PRIDE Association for their extraordinary service.

Supervisor Fulton Brock, District 1, has worked closely with the San Tan Mountains PRIDE Association on their clean-up efforts. Supervisor Max Wilson, Chairman of the Board, presented the special award to the San Tan Mountains PRIDE Association.

San Tan Mountains PRIDE Association – 7th Annual Community Clean Up

For the past 7 years, the San Tan Mountains PRIDE Association has organized a Community Wide Cleanup, establishing supportive partnerships with the Town of Queen Creek, Maricopa County and Pinal County, as well as local area businesses and other organizations. They organize volunteers to clean up litter and debris along Queen Creek area roadways and provide for area residents to bring household hazardous wastes. They arrange a free Queen Creek Landfill Day and for the recycling of electronic equipment such as computers and cell phones.
